Musicians

Debra Ayers, pianist, is the director of Montage Music Society. She presents the Altazano Salon and Montage@Quail Run concerts in Santa Fe, NM. A proponent of contemporary music, premieres include works by Ofer Ben-Amots, Matthew Aucoin, Juantio Becenti, William Bolcom, Nell Shaw Cohen, Paul Elwood, Jody Redhage Ferber, Jeff Harrington, Pierre Jalbert, Andrew List, Niles Luther, Elliot Roman, Daniel Schnyder, Ronald Strauss, Bruce Wolosoff, and Yehudi Wyner. Ayers is featured in the Milken Archive as well as on a number of critically-acclaimed recordings and a documentary series, "Creating Music Inspired by Visual Art".

Dr. Jeffrey Brooks, beyond being a very active performer, is an Associate Professor of Clarinet at the University of New Mexico. He holds the 3rd/Bass Clarinet Chair in the New Mexico Philharmonic and owns clarinetmonster.com. As a concert soloist, Brooks has appeared often and given numerous solo recitals. He has performed with the Seattle Symphony, Seattle Opera, Atlanta Symphony, Charleston Symphony, Savannah Philharmonic, Santa Fe Opera, and many others across the Pacific Northwest, Southwest, and Southeastern U.S. Brooks duo, Clarinet Meets Guitar, is releasing its second album featuring newly commissioned works. Jeff has recorded for Naxos, New World Records, and Frameworks, as well as on film scores, video games, and commercials. An avid jazz performer, he has released two albums of original music and developed the symphonic pops show Monsters of Clarinet. Brooks holds both an MM and a DM from Florida State University.

Tara Khozein is a soprano, songmaker, improviser, teacher, and theater artist. She has lived and worked throughout the United States and Europe. As a multidisciplinary performer, Khozein explores the intersections of classical and noisy singing and physical theatre. She is also a musical director for ensemble theater and a performance director for musicians. Khozein has performed as a soloist with major institutions in Europe, including Oper Köln, The Bregenz Festival, The Cologne Philharmonie, Budapest Music Center, and the Janáček Academy. Khozein is based in Brooklyn, NY, and Budapest, Hungary.

Jesse Tatum is a relentless musician, performing chamber music, orchestral music, operas, and solo works. They are Principal Flute of The Santa Fe Symphony, Santa Fe Pro Musica, Opera Southwest Orchestra, and a Core Member at Chatter, where she has performed well over a decade of adventurous chamber music with the innovative Albuquerque-based chamber ensemble. Additionally, Tatum has performed many seasons with The Santa Fe Opera and the New Mexico Philharmonic. Highlights of the 2025 season included premiere appearances with Taos Chamber Music Group, Santa Fe Desert Chorale, and the Santa Fe Chamber Music Festival.

Tatum has collaborated with many composers and participated in numerous world, US, and New Mexico premieres of solo, chamber, orchestral, and operatic works. They have been a Featured Performer of Powell Flutes, profiled in Albuquerque The Magazine, appeared in Rolling Stone magazine, and served multiple times as a Newly Published Music judge for the National Flute Association.
